

Omaha Theater Company
2001 Farnam Street
Omaha, NE 68102

Where the Dream Began

In 1948, Emmy Gifford and a few friends traveled to New York City to attend a national conference to learn how to bring children's theater to American audiences. They returned to Omaha, enthusiastic and determined to create a theater dedicated to enriching the lives of Omaha's children. It was the seed of today's Omaha Theater Company!

Today, the Omaha Theater Company at the Rose is one of the nation's top children's theaters. The Omaha Theater Ballet is our region's only resident professional ballet company. Every year over 400,000 children and adults attend the drama, musical, and ballet performances at the Rose.

All of us in The Rose Theater Guild are still as enthusiastic today, as we celebrate 60 years of children's theater and 10 years of dance. Please join us and support The Rose Theater and all it does for our children, our families and our community
